Group Project Allocated Effort by Team Members
Peer Review

Please evaluate the percent of total "team" time that each team member has contributed to the overall project to date. Allocate percentage contributions to each team member which sum to 100% (per cent).

For example, on a three-person team, suppose that the first-named team member contributed more than other team members to the effort, the second-named team member contributed an average level of effort, and the third-named team member contributed less effort. One allocation might be

First-named team member: 40%
Second-named team member: 33%
Third-named team member: 27%.
